

DC Days 2010

March 14-17

Washington, DC

ENDING THE NUCLEAR THREAT: PROTECTING OUR COMMUNITIES AND OUR WORLD

Presented by the Alliance for Nuclear Accountability

DC Days 2010

Alliance for Nuclear Accountability
322 4th Street, NE
Washington, DC 20002

Ending the Nuclear Threat: Protecting Our Communities and Our World

DC Days 2010
March 14-17, 2010

- I Would Like to Participate in DC Days. Please send info.
- I would like to organize a group to attend DC Days. Please send an organizer's packet.
- I would like to sponsor someone to participate.

Name _____ Organization _____
Address _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____
Phone _____ Email _____

DC Days 2010 Priorities

- Increase funding and improve environmental cleanup standards
- Stop research and development of new nuclear weapons
- Oppose new nuclear bomb production plants – Support Nonproliferation
- Create a fair and comprehensive waste cleanup plan
- Prevent the dirty, dangerous and expensive reprocessing of spent nuclear fuel
- Support long-term environmental protection at DOE sites
- Promote safe solutions for plutonium disposal

Be part of the solution!

Join activists from across the country for four days of training and advocacy.

What is DC Days?

Combining networking and fun, DC Days is a unique opportunity to learn from experts and voice your concerns about nuclear weapons, power and waste. Meet with Members of Congress and the Administration.

Who is the Alliance for Nuclear Accountability?

We are a network of over 35 grassroots and national organizations from communities in the shadow of the U.S. nuclear weapons complex. We are working to protect human health and the environment by addressing issues of nuclear weapons, power and waste.

For the past 22 years, ANA has hosted DC Days to advocate for the public's fundamental right to security, safety, environmental quality, government accountability, and democracy.

Why should you participate?

Your participation in DC Days will help send a message to our elected officials to prioritize health, safety and the environment instead of more nuclear waste, weapons, and reactors. It is a great opportunity to build your resume, to gain valuable skills and meet contacts in the nation's capital. Join us at DC Days and be part of the solution!

Register Today!

Visit www.ananuclear.org

Register by February 12, 2010 and pay $125; thereafter it is $150. Students only pay $50.

Make your travel and lodging plans now to ensure a good visit to our nation's Capitol. ANA provides a light breakfast and lunch for the Sunday training, and snacks and refreshments will be provided during the week. Attendees are responsible for all other meals, housing and travel.

Use DC Days as an opportunity for your local group to raise funds to send a representative to DC to make sure your community's voice is heard.

Help Others Attend!

Your tax deductible donation of any size will help provide for others to attend DC Days. ANA is a 501(c)(3) organization.

Alliance for Nuclear Accountability

322 4th Street NE
Washington DC, 20002
Phone (202) 544-0217
Fax (202) 544-6143
www.ananuclear.org
dyoken@ananuclear.org

Learning and Doing: An Agenda for Action!

Sunday, March 14th Training

Learn from experts at a full day of issue and skills training. Sessions include:

- Nuclear policy and legislation
- Lobbying teamwork and skills
- The political atmosphere in Washington.

Monday - Wednesday, March 15-17th Meetings with Legislators and Administrators

Join teams of fellow activists to meet with Senators, Representatives, key members of the Obama Administration, and staff. Rest and meet with other participants at the DC Days headquarters on Capitol Hill.

Monday, March 15th Morning: Press Conference Evening: Pizza Party

There will be plenty of pizza, beer, wine, and refreshments. Meet with fellow activists and have dinner. ($10)

Tuesday, March 16th Evening: Awards Reception

Honor those who have helped our cause. Awards are given to legislators, reporters, and activists who have championed our cause.